SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

A suspect believed to be a prolific car thief was located and arrested in Sheridan this afternoon. Law Enforcement officials have been searching for the suspect for at least two months.

Placer County Sheriff's Detectives and Patrol personnel, along with agents from the Special Investigations Unit (SIU) set up surveillance of a residence on the 4700 block of H Street in Sheridan. Based on a tip, detectives believed Keith Gordon Logan, 35, of Roseville, was staying in the residence.

Keith Gordon Logan

After a short while, they spotted Logan on the property. They moved in on the suspect who attempted to flee in a white 2001 BMW. Logan rammed the car into the front end of a detective's car and tried to push it out of the way without success. Logan was taken into custody without further incident. Neither the detective or Logan was hurt. Both cars received moderate damage. The BMW was recently stolen from Yuba City.

Also taken into custody were two residents of the home: Max Risinger, 34 and Vicki Brammer, 35. Risinger and Brammer were booked on charges Conspiracy to Harbor a Fugitive. Both were transported and booked at the Placer County Jail. Their bail is set at $5,000 each. No photos of them are available at this time.

Logan was booked on an outstanding $150,000 warrant charging him with Possession of Stolen Property with an enhancement charge of having a prior prison term. Fresh charges of Assault With a Deadly Weapon and Possession of a Controlled Substance add an additional bail amount of $15,000 for Logan.
